Europe's best driver works with R2 Agro

We are proud to inform that one of our regular drivers of grain products won the title in "Young European Truck Driver" - a competition arranged by Scania.

Lars Søndergaard, 32 years and owner of the transport company Aale Vognmandsforretning, participated end of April in the European final in Stockholm.

Before Lars could lift the trophy, he successfully completed different demanding tasks e.g. securing of cargo, first aid and fire fighting, checking of vehicle and defensive and economic driving.

The final victory was settled after a challenging maneuvering drive.

Worth mentioning is that the prize was EUR 100.000 to buy a new Scania truck.
